This Privacy Policy applies to the data processing operations of Advanced Protection Systems. We are transparent about how we collect personal data and for what purpose it is used.

Please notice, that Advanced Protection Systems collects personal details and corporate information provided by its (potential) customers and suppliers, as well as data obtained through visits to and use of the Advanced Protection Systems website.

Website visitors:

(Personal) data that may be collected by Advanced Protection Systems includes first and last name, telephone number, email address and IP address. These data may be collected through the web form and the Google analytics cookies.

Purposes for the use and processing of data

Please notice, that we only collect and process personal data if this is necessary and do so only for the following purposes:

- making offers and/or providing information about the services and other activities of Advanced Protection Systems;
- entering into and implementing agreements and maintaining customer contact
- compliance with statutory obligations;
- answering questions and handling complaints;
- internal management and administration;

Data retention and removing data

As we use your data for the purposes mentioned above, Advanced Protection Systems retains and removes personal data no longer than is necessary for the above-mentioned purposes and observes the statutory retention periods.

Sharing personal data with third parties and disclosure

Advanced Protection Systems shares personal data with third parties if this is necessary for achieving the above-mentioned purposes and for compliance with any statutory obligation. We conclude a processing agreement with companies that process the data on our behalf to ensure an equal level of security and confidentiality of all data. Advanced Protection Systems is and remains responsible for these processing operations. In addition, we would like to emphasize that only provides personal data to other third parties with your explicit consent.

Security

We take your personal data very seriously and will do its utmost to optimally protect the personal data provided against unauthorised access, abuse, loss, and theft. Advanced Protection Systems has taken appropriate technical and organisational measures and monitors and protects its services against abuse and fraud.

Cookies

Advanced Protection Systems only uses technical, functional and analytical cookies that do not infringe on your privacy. Please note, that a cookie is a small text file that is stored to your computer, tablet or smartphone during your first visit to the Advanced Protection Systems website. The cookies are necessary for the technical functioning of the website and for ease of use. They ensure that the website works properly and remember your preferred settings. This also allows us to optimise our website. We would like to inform you, that as part of the 'Analytics' service, a cookie of the American company Google is placed through our website. Advanced Protection Systems uses this service to keep track and receive reports on the way in which visitors use the website. As Advanced Protection Systems has concluded a processing agreement with Google, has disabled the 'share data' option, Google does not process the complete IP address and other Google services are not used, your consent for placing these cookies is not required.

Please notice, that you can unsubscribe from cookies by setting your internet browser to stop saving cookies. You can also remove all previously saved information in the settings of your browser. Consult the Help function of your browser for more information.

Amendments to our Privacy Policy

Advanced Protection Systems may modify this Privacy Policy. Changes in laws and regulations may require us to adjust our Privacy Policy. We may also want to adjust our Privacy Policy on the basis of new insights. If we adjust the Privacy Policy, we will immediately make the new version available online.

Your rights

You have the right to access your data that Advanced Protection Systems has collected and processed. You have the right to correct all data or to have them removed from the Advanced Protection Systems files. Moreover, in certain circumstances you have the right to ask for removal of your personal data or limit the processing operations. Finally, you have the right to object to the data processing as well as the right to transfer your data to another organisation, or have them transferred. We will always observe all statutory obligations when performing these requests.
